Training Institute for Judges

2148. SHRI L. GANESAN:

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY:

Will the Minister of LAW AND JUSTICE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to set up an Institute to train Judges; and

(b) if so, what are the salient features of such training scheme?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE: (SHRI H. R. BHARDWAJ): (a) and (b) The matter regarding imparting formal institutional training to the judicial officers has been under consideration of the Government. In one of the resolutions passed in the Conference of Chief Justices of High Courts, Chief Ministers and Law Ministers of States held on 31st August, and 1st September, 1985 at New Delhi it was recommended that there should be an Institute or Academy for the training of judicial officers to be set up by the Central Government with Chief Justice of India as the Chairman. The Central Government has requested the Chief Justice of India to intimate the present position in this regard and also the type of assistance that he would require from the Central Government for setting up of the proposed Institute/Academy. His reply is awaited.
